

Curriculum Vitae

Inge Kristiansen, Manager of Horsens Safe Community and Horsens Healthy City

Education:

Theological studies at the University of Aarhus, 1973 – 1976, followed by Arts graduate qualifications in musicology from the University of Aarhus.

1975 – 1985:

College teacher, continuation school teacher, upper secondary school teacher, music school teacher

1985 – 1988:

Culture consultant with Vejle County (the first culture consultant in Denmark)

1988 – 1996:

Culture consultant with Ringkøbing County

Responsible for the organisation and carrying out of various international projects, including a long-term partnership with the Cambridge University.

Responsible for the planning and conducting of international workshops arranged by the Danish Cultural Institute in St Petersburg and elsewhere.

Giving lectures in Denmark and abroad.

1996 –

Manager of Horsens Healthy City, Healthy City Coordinator, including implementation of Healthy City in the municipal administrations, transfer of experiences between citizens and administrations, continuing development of the cross-sector partnership, citizen involvement, the international partnership and main items under the WHO Healthy Cities Network.

2003 –

Manager of Horsens Safe Community, Safe Community Coordinator, including implementation of Safe Community in the municipal administrations, transfer of experiences between citizens and administrations, continued development of the cross-sector partnership, citizen involvement, the international partnership and main items under the European Safe Communities Network.

Giving lectures in Denmark and abroad.

Ongoing contributions to relevant periodicals/media.